

REPARATIONS COMMITTEE OPENS SESSION

GENERAL DAWES IN STIRRING SPEECH DEFINES POSITION

Outline of United States Work during World War Reviewed Briefly—Why a Further Effort Now is Being Made to be of Service Fully Explained—Asks Full Co-operation

PARIS, Jan. 14. (AP)—Brigadier General Dawes, U. S. A., chairman of the first committee of experts appointed by the reparations commission to consider the resources and capacity of Germany looking to a solution of the reparations problem, delivered a straight-forward, hard-hitting speech at the opening of the committee today. He declared he could speak neither for the government of the United States nor for the American people but as an individual. After reviewing the situation from the standpoint of an American business man, he made an earnest plea for common sense and practical cooperation among the nations, so that Germany's productivity could be restored to her that she meet her obligations.

A member of the British delegation of the reparations commission, commenting on the opening of the conference said: "The experts got off to a breezy start. This expresses the general settlement in reparations and diplomatic circles. 'General Dawes' legendary energy,' as M. Marthou put it, seemed to send a draft of fresh air through reparations headquarters which never appeared to shelter so much activity since the commission was organized. 'Can he keep this up to it?' was a question which was asked around the committee when it became known that General Dawes would propose that his colleagues work night

SERIOUS DELAY TO TAX BILLS NOW IS FEARED

House Repeals Underwood Rule On Amendments

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Passage of tax legislation at this session of congress has been jeopardized, in the opinion of Chairman Green of the House ways and means committee by the action of the house today in repealing the Underwood rule which sought to restrict amendments from the floor to revenue bills and to curb debate.

After the house had revoked the rule Mr. Green expressed the opinion that such a flood of amendments from the floor to revenue bills and to curb debate. "If the tax bill," Mr. Green said, "goes before the house controlled only by the rules as amended today a situation would prevail under which it would be practically impossible to pass it, even though a majority were in favor of it."

Hearings Are Begun
The ways and means committee began public hearings on changes sought in the present revenue law, a number of business representatives appearing to argue for repeal of various taxes. Further drafting on the bill by the committee will be suspended pending completion of hearings which the chairman hopes will be accomplished by the close of the week.

Democrats continued today to bombard the Mellon tax revision plan, Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, charging in the senate that banks and railroads have joined with the motion picture industry and certain newspapers in a campaign of propaganda for the Mellon plan. With reference to the rules change, Mr. Green declared amendment after amendment could be offered and the result would be very much as when the McKinley tariff bill was first brought before the house and it was found to be absolutely impossible to make any progress. It would be perfectly easy for a small group to prolong discussion of the bill for more than six months.

and day until they got somewhere with the inquiry.

Impression Made
The impression made by General Dawes' speech was in every way favorable inside and outside of reparations circles, excepting in extreme nationalist quarters.

Opinions differed as to whether General Dawes in speaking of lack of unity among the allies meant to allude to the attitude of Great Britain or to that of France some are inclined to think it was meant for both.

That it was meant for some other of the allies than France, appears to be the opinion in French official circles. A high functionary of the French foreign office remarked that what France had suffered from most and what Germany most profited from was lack of unity among the allies, and that if General Dawes' coming to Europe accomplished nothing else than bringing about unity he would earn the everlasting gratitude of the French.

Adjournment Taken
After a three and a half hour session this afternoon the meeting adjourned until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

The committee adopted a resolution providing that the records of the proceedings be kept absolutely confidential. The secretary alone is authorized to give out statements when approved by the members. The experts themselves have been pledged to give more interviews. Text of Brigadier General Charles G. Dawes, address before the first expert committee on reparations at its opening session today was in part as follows:

"The difficulties involved in the determination of the allied policy both in time of war and in time of peace are little realized by the average citizen in all countries. To him it seems strange that eventually common sense agreements, which in times of emergency characterize allied policy, come about so slowly.

"He does not realize the barriers which must be first beaten down, erected by national pride and the pride and selfish interest of different allied officers whose powers are effected by any act of coercive inter-allied coordination, and by the incessant misrepresentations and intolerable interjections of those four and carion loving vultures of the nationalistic demagogues of all countries, who would exploit a common misfortune.

Dawes Illustrates
"Let me illustrate: Napoleon's sixty fourth maxim of war was that nothing in war is more important than a central command under one chief. This great principle was realized and accepted at the beginning of the war by all the military authorities in the world and yet after nearly four years of warfare the German army on March 21, 1918, struck at the junction of the British and French armies and broke thru because of the lack of a central command controlling the proper disposition of reserves."

"The British army was forced back upon its lines of communication toward the channel ports. The French army was forced back upon its line of communication toward Paris. A gap was opened. Then it was that the allies, facing the abyss, gielded part of their sovereign power for the time being to the central command under Poch which paved the way to the allied victory.

"What brought about complete allied cooperation in time of war? Nothing but an overwhelming emergency.

Speaks as Individual
"As an American citizen, invited to this place by the reparations commission I can speak neither for the government of the United States nor for the American people, but as an individual I can say that I have read in shame and humiliation the outpourings of the American demagogues who undertake to

INSURGENTS IN HOUSE CONTROL WORK ON RULES

House Democrats and Republican Insurgents Combine

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—House Democrats and Republican insurgents, forming a coalition for the first time this session routed the Republican organization today and repealed the Underwood rule which practically made it impossible to offer from the floor important amendments to revenue and tariff bills.

On motion of Representative Garrett, the Democratic leader, the rule adopted in 1911, when the Democrats controlled the house was repealed by a vote of 208 to 177. The Democrats voting solidly for repeal had the support of 24 Republicans, among them the insurgents, and three others while Representative Longworth, the Republican leader and Chairman Snell of the rules committee urged retention of the rule.

After this showdown—the first to develop in the rules fight which will continue tomorrow—the house became involved in a bitter debate over proposals for discharge of committees from consideration of legislation but took no action.

Differences Arise
On this proposition there is a difference of opinion between the Republican organization and the Democratic insurgent combination as to the number of signatures which should be required on petitions for discharge. A test of strength in this controversy probably will come tomorrow.

Advocating repeal of the Underwood rule, Mr. Garrett declared it never should have been incorporated in the general rules of the house. As interpreted by the various speakers, he said, it had served to prevent during consideration of tariff bills, the transfer of commodities from the free list and vice-versa.

New House Committee
While no opposition developed to day to the recommending of the rules committee for the creation of a new house committee to handle legislation affecting world war veterans there was some discussion as to whether the committee also should have jurisdiction over bills affecting veterans of the Spanish American War.

The fight over rules brought to an end that thirty day truce agreed on at the time of the reelection of Speaker Gillette. Republican insurgents agreed to make his reelection possible if assured liberalization of the rules. The rules committee was given a month to make recommendations and the wrangle today was over its report.

LITCHFIELD CITY BUILDINGS BURNED TO GROUND MONDAY

Fire Department and Administrative Offices Destroyed

LITCHFIELD, Ill., Jan. 14.—The city hall here, housing the police and fire departments, city clerk's office, council meeting rooms, and other administrative offices was completely destroyed by fire late this afternoon. Several surrounding structures narrowly escaped the flames, while fanned by a strong south wind, threatened for a time to develop into a serious conflagration.

At a council meeting immediately after the fire, it was decided to rebuild the hall at once.

JURY IS SECURED TO TRY WM. CREASY

MINEOLA, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Selection of a jury was completed late today in the second trial of William M. Creasy, of Fort Thomas, Ky., charged with murdering Miss Edith Lavoie, a Freeport school teacher. The state will present its case tomorrow. Creasy was found guilty at his first trial but after spending nine months in the death house at Sing Sing, was granted a new hearing.

Philadelphia, Jan. 14.—The annual meeting of the American Bar association will be held in Philadelphia, July 9 to 11, the executive committee announced today.

AN APPEAL TO FARMERS TO PUT FARMING ON BUSINESS BASIS

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 14.—An appeal to the farmers to put farming on a more business-like basis another appeal for the deepening of the waterways from the Lakes to the Gulf and from the Lakes to the Sea, an endorsement of the conference by President Coolidge and an attack on Socialistic and communistic methods, were the high spots of the initial session today of the Farmers and Manufacturers conference, sponsored by the Illinois Manufacturers' association. John M. Keeley of Baraboo, Wis., a stock man told the conference that co-operative marketing, federal price fixing, tariff, currency regulation or any thing else would not help the farmer unless he changes his business methods.

Magnus W. Alexander of New York, managing director of the National Industrial conference board advocated extension of the present immigration limitation act for a few years and a federal investigation of immigration question by an advisory committee to be appointed by the president.

One practical point stressed by Mr. Alexander was that more immigration than could be given work should not be admitted, but that the question of how many could be assimilated by industry, he thought should be studied in a federal investigation.

MILK WAR IN AND NEAR CHICAGO IS GROWING VIOLENT

Much Milk Spilled and Near Riots Are Being Staged

RACINE, Wis., Jan. 14.—Violence and the blocking of roads leading to Racine county from Kenosha, destruction of property and attacks on several farmers, marked activities today in the milk strike among Wisconsin producers serving the Chicago milk district. Farmers openly charged today that men had been imported from Illinois by "unknown persons" to aggravate the situation.

Indications that the trouble might spread became so grave that Sheriff George Wherry and five deputies left Racine to make a tour of inspection.

One creamery at Burlington became indirectly involved in the trouble when a Kenosha county farmer's truck was almost demolished by strikers.

Stage Near Riots
A near riot occurred at Bristol when Leslie Gunter was attacked after he had delivered a load of milk to the Bowman plant there. Several men attempted to climb in his wagon. He warned them to stay off and then when they continued to swarm over the sides made use of his heavy whip. As a result he was severely beaten. His father, Charles Gunter, hearing the encounter, rushed from his home and aided his son. The elder Gunter also was handled roughly.

Roads leading to Wheatland from Silver Lake and Burlington were found blocked by means of trees and posts today. Several loads of milk were tipped over at Bassett.

Milk was emptied from cans and poured on the ground. Benjamin Leach of the Wheatland Co-operative Company said telephone wires leading to his plant were cut. The driveway leading to his farm was blocked with a telephone pole.

Milk producers in the Chicago district are striking because their demands for $2.75 per 100 lbs. of milk were not granted by the marketers.

The Chicago district includes Kenosha and parts of the Racine county.

EXPLORATION PLANNED OF NAVY OIL DEPOSIT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Plans for another expedition to explore the navy's largest petroleum reserve located in the extreme northern part of Alaska, were announced today by the interior department. Dr. Philip S. Smith, a government geologist will be in charge.

Due to the difficulty of transporting supplies over long stretches of territory the party will be limited to three technical men and four camp hands. Dr. Smith's most difficult task will be to transport five tons of supplies and four canoes from the government railroad in Alaska to and across the Yukon-Arctic divide.

FRISCO OFFERS LARGE SUM FOR NATIONAL MEET

Sensation Created by Offer for Democratic Convention

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Democratic councils today developed a real but friendly rivalry in the rivalry for the city to be given the 1924 national convention. With the arrival of virtually all national committee members for tomorrow's meeting to choose the convention city the contest between New York, Chicago, St. Louis and San Francisco forged into first place even above the candidacies of presidential aspirants.

Although the McAdoo forces favored a western city for the convention with sentiment divided between Chicago and St. Louis the arrival of New York's large delegation late today gave an impetus to the New York movement. San Francisco furnished a sensation by an offer of $200,000 for the convention, the largest definite bid yet brought out.

In the selection of the convention city, financial consideration promised to play a large part, but not a conclusive one.

It was announced today that Atlanta, Ga., would not present an invitation for the convention and no open move came in behalf of Louisville, Ky., which was reported to have an offer under consideration.

Political figures big upon the Democratic screen were prominent in hotel lobbies and conferences preliminary to the national committee meeting.

Big Leaders Busy
Campaign lieutenants and partisans of McAdoo and Underwood, avowed presidential candidates were busy among the Democratic throngs, together with those favorable to Governor Smith, John W. Davis, Senator Ralston and other "favorite son" potentialities.

Actively on the ground was George E. Brennan, Illinois leader. Another prominent figure on the scene was Governor Charles W. Bryan of Nebraska. He will be joined tomorrow by his brother, William Jennings Bryan, who yesterday suggested a new Florida candidate for president.

The women members held several meetings, under the direction of Mrs. Emily Newell-Blair of Missouri, vice-chairman of the national committee.

Entertains Women
Mrs. Blair was hostess tonight at a dinner for the women associates, who are being entertained at other events during their visit here. The New York delegation refrained from disclosing the exact financial bid to be offered for the convention. This is to be discussed tomorrow before the committee meets. Chairman Day, however, said New York had a fund of at least $100,000 and would go after the convention as a business proposition coupled with civic pride.

Chicago has a fund of $125,000 and there were reports of possible additions in event of active bidding in the committee deliberations.

HELD TO GRAND JURY FOR MANSLAUGHTER

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—Testimony at the inquest into the death of James Lolita to the effect that John Rognetz, owner of a rooming house and Michael Lombardo, a roomer, that permitted Lolita to suffer loss of blood while they dismantled a still, today resulted in the coroner's jury recommending that Rognetz and Lombardo be held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter. Rognetz and Lombardo testified that they heard a crashing of glass and upon arising from bed found Lolita injured. Lolita was intoxicated and they did not think he had been hurt seriously they said.

They added that they did not call the police until they had destroyed the still because they were afraid its presence would lead to their arrest.

BORAH RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A resolution by Senator Borah Republican, Idaho, calling on the state department for the text of a reports on conditions in Persia, was adopted today by the senate.

CHURCH COMMITTEE HOLDS FOSDYCK IS SOUNDLY ORTHODOX

Is Exonerated of Charge of Heretic Utterances Altho Title of Sermon on Which Charges Were Based is Criticized—Committee Chairman Resigns as Church Pastor

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The Rev. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdyck whose allegedly heretic utterances in the First Presbyterian Church have been the subject of investigation by a special committee of the New York Presbytery was exonerated of the charges today in holding that Rev. Dr. Fosdyck's preachings had conformed to the doctrines of the church.

Just before the Presbytery assembled with scores of church laymen as a gallery, to receive the committee's report and approve it a sensation was caused by the announcement that the committee's chairman, Dr. Edgar Whittaker Work, had resigned as pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church.

Dr. Work read the report, however, and concurred in it. Neither he nor his committee colleagues would discuss his resignation except to say that it had been prompted by ill health.

DOUBLE MURDER IS BAFFLING MYSTERY DUE MANY STORIES

Believed by Some Warren Lincoln May Repudiate Confession

AURORA, Ill., Jan. 14.—Charges of double murder in the first degree face Warren G. Lincoln, lawyer and horticulturist, who confessed the murder of his wife and the cremation of her body with that of her brother, Byron Shoup in his hot house furnace here a year ago, if the plans formulated tonight by State's Attorney Charles Abbott of Elgin are successful.

"The evidence in this will be placed before the grand jury at Geneva on February 4," the prosecutor announced after questioning Lincoln for four hours this afternoon.

Lincoln's story of how he killed his wife with a poker, after she had slain her brother with a pistol, and then hacked the two bodies to pieces, burned them in the green house furnace and distributed the ashes over the flower beds of his garden, remained unchanged by his cross-examination today according to Chief of Detectives Otto Wirtz.

Lincoln appeared before his examiners this afternoon in apparent good spirits and refused for the second time to engage counsel for his defense.

Lincoln recounted today his disappearance from his home here on April 30 under circumstances leading the police to believe at first that he had been slain by his wife and Byron Shoup.

Lincoln said he had conceived this hoax in the hope of clearing himself as suspect at a time when Shoup's relatives in Mount Pulaski were inclined to discredit his story that Mrs. Lincoln and her brother had merely left his home.

He said he obtained the blood on which he built his trail of evidence by killing four chickens and soaking his night clothing in their blood. These he threw into an abandoned well after smearing blood on a window sill and leaving a bloody trail from the house to the well.

He disarranged the furniture in the house he told the authorities to leave every evidence of a struggle, then dropped his wife's glove, soaked in chicken blood near the well to direct suspicion upon his mate.

According to survivors a crew of men were working on Still No. 25 when Still No. 28 exploded and the flames set off Still No. 24. The two spread the flaming oil over the workmen. It is believed that the two missing men are still in the ruins.

WILSON RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—A resolution by Senator Wilson, Democrat, New Jersey, calling on the state department for the text of a reports on conditions in Persia, was adopted today by the house.

As chairman of the sub-committee to conduct hearings on Russian recognition, Senator Wilson, notified the state and justice departments were ready to be represented.

The Mellon plan is based on cold facts and scientifically designed to bring the necessary funds into the Treasury with the least discouragement to productive enterprise and the lightest burden on people of moderate means.

Messrs. Dawes and Young, the American members of the special commission that will investigate Germany's capacity to pay, received an enthusiastic welcome when they landed in France, and a special train conveyed them from the boat to Paris. The question is: Will the same France enthusiasm be manifest when their findings are made public?

Senator McKinley has given another $55,000 to the University of Illinois. This gift is intended for the furtherance of the building of a hospital for students on the university grounds. Senator McKinley has throughout the years been a most liberal friend to the university and there can be no question about his loyalty to it or to his home cities Champaign-Urbana.

In Fiume a recent order will reduce the number of saloons from 600 to 60. This is said to be a part of a campaign of the building industry to reduce both the amount of intoxicating liquor sold and to check the spread of tuberculosis. This is one of the recurring evidences of worldwide interest in last regulating the liquor business.

A road building convention is in progress in Chicago this week and 30,000 people are expected to attend. There has been such a marvelous increase in the road building industry in recent years that each succeeding convention brings its larger number of delegates and increasing interest in the discussion of problems presented. Certainly the road builders are engaged in a business which vitally affects public welfare. The development of hard roads is changing the aspect of business in many lines, and has its very direct effect upon both city and rural life.

Brigadier General Butler is as chief of police cleaning up Philadelphia. Sensational raids have been made and vice just now is on the run in the Quaker City. Perhaps after General Butler has shown how it can be done, officials resident there may be able to take up the burden of law enforcement in a more effective way.

W. J. Bryan has let his secret out and announces that if he is a delegate to the Democratic national convention that he will nominate Dr. Murphree, of Florida University, for the presidency. This announcement will at least relieve some members of the Democratic party—those gentlemen who were fearful that Mr. Bryan intended to nominate himself.

If you want to know something about the interest in radio just consider these figures. In 1921, 112,500 vacuum tubes were sold as a part of radio equipment. In 1922 the number was 1,583,021, and the records available for the first nine months of 1923 show 2,931,262 tubes sold. And this is an industry just in its early stage.

In 1878 Mary Beatrice Kennedy became the first telephone exchange operator in New York City. She is still plugging a switchboard in the College of St. Elizabeth at Convent Station, N. J.

Now, if you think human nature has changed much, hear to Mary's memories of old times.

Before Mary took her job in 1878, "Central" was always a boy.

"I got my job," she recalls, "because the company was tired of firing its swearing boy operators. Subscribers used to come down to the telephone office to fight the operator who had sworn at them."

Phone users don't do that these days, but some of them occasionally weaken and start figuring how far the trip to "Central."

In the old days, Mary recalls, people didn't use telephone numbers. They just cranked at the box, took down the receiver and asked for Smith's drug store or Brown's grocery. And people must have been as impatient as now for Central got an earful of abuse if there was delay in getting the desired party.

Mary says folks used to ring Central and ask the price of eggs and what kind of weather was predicted for tomorrow. The telephone companies still are toiling to break people of the habit of asking Central what time it is, where the fire, did One-Round Gorilla knock out Battling Snoozer, or who won the ball game.

Mary worked short hours, for those times—only 8 in the morning until 6 at night. She had a long trip between home and office, and had to climb six flights of stairs to get to her switchboard. Who invented the elevator that ended this toil? Don't all answer at once.

TIPS FOR TAXPAYERS

No. 18

The deduction allowed an employer for salaries or wages of employees is defined by the revenue act as "a reasonable allowance for salaries or other compensation for services actually rendered." Such claims to be allowed must conform closely to the wording of the statute.

The test of deductibility is whether the amounts paid are reasonable, and whether they are, in fact, purely for personal services. Reasonable compensation is held by the Bureau of Internal Revenue to the amount "that would ordinarily be paid for like services by like enterprises in like circumstances."

BUDGET ORDINANCE PASSED BY COUNCIL

Measure Appropriates Funds for City Business During Year—Provision Made for Building and Plumbing Inspectors.

A budget ordinance for 1924 was passed with an emergency clause by the city council at the session held Monday night. The items in the various funds were changed very little from the estimates published in the Sunday Journal. Mayor Crabtree was present and roll call by City Clerk Scott showed all members of the council present. Aldermen McGinnis, Blesse, Chumley, Fairbank, Chapin, Harmon, Sorrells and Rowe.

A number of citizens were present and Franklin Scott of the high school faculty brought boys and girls in a civics class for the session.

City Attorney Bellatti made report that the city is not liable for damage done when a chimney on the Cherry building crashed thru a window of the Rexroat building to the north.

A letter was read from Harry Ferguson with reference to a meeting of engineers and others interested in city water supply, soon to be held in Champaign. It was suggested that Mr. Swanson, superintendent of the city light and power plant should attend and the matter was referred to the water committee.

Alderman Rowe presented the formal report relating to the police department which has already been made public. An ordinance was read and passed with an emergency clause providing that money from Diamond Grove and Jacksonville cemeteries shall be hereafter kept in one general fund apart from the ordinary city funds.

Alderman Chapin made an informal report of the action taken recently by the citizens' water committee in approving the plan of water plant betterment which has been discussed for a number of weeks past.

The budget ordinance was then read section by section and some few changes made. It was agreed just before the passage of the ordinance with an emergency clause that the budget shall include an appropriation of $1,000 for building inspector and $1,000 for a plumber inspector. However, it is understood that these inspectors shall not be appointed until a plan has been definitely worked out whereby the fees collected will be sufficient to take care of the inspectors' salaries.

The budget ordinance will be given legal publication in the course of a week.

Mabel Austin, the well known White Hall slayer, who escaped from the Jacksonville State hospital Saturday afternoon, was captured by local police about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the Burlington-C. & A. station. She was in possession of a ticket to Beadstown and was waiting to take the northbound Burlington passenger. She refused to say where she had been or what she had been doing since her escape. Someone who was not acquainted with Mrs. Austin had bought the ticket for her, as she appeared to have no money in her possession.

Mrs. Austin, who was committed to the state hospital after she had slain her sister-in-law near White Hall, has attempted escape several times and succeeded once before. This time she was discovered to be missing after chapel exercises when she did not appear in a long line of patients filing out of the building.

THOUSANDS HAVE KIDNEY TROUBLE AND NEVER SUSPECT IT

Applicants for Insurance Often Rejected

Judging from reports from druggists who are constantly in direct touch with the public, there is one preparation that has been very successful in overcoming these conditions. The mild and healing influence of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of success.

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper. (adv.)

Biddle. Music was furnished by Rev. J. A. Biddle, Dr. R. O. Beadles, Mrs. S. N. Zahn and Mrs. Annette Lohman, with Miss Helen Reardon at the piano.

The death of Mrs. Livingood occurred at St. Francis hospital in Peoria Thursday, Jan. 10, and came as a great shock to her Ashland friends.

The deceased at the time of her death was aged 39 years, 7 months and 10 days. She is survived by her husband, Elmer Livingood, and five children.

the great inarticulate mind and conscience of my people. Mr. Young and I will endeavor to express it in our actions upon this committee. We come humbly in opinion knowing there is no barrier against acquiring knowledge like pride and pre-conceived opinion. We come knowing that you know much more about your own affairs than we do. We come realizing the sacrifices which you have made for the victory to which our people also contributed and of which we share the benefits.

Wish to be Helpful
"We come only wanting to be helpful to you who with your super-knowledge and longer experience will take the initiative in the search for a common sense agreement. We come determined that nothing shall prevent our full usefulness, if we have any, to you in a work which is yours.
"In the last war I was chief of supply and procurement for the American expeditionary forces under command of General Pershing.
"When we came we stood empty handed, reaching to our friends for the needed supplies. "Great Britain furnished us ships to transport the bulk of our troops. We fired only French ammunition from the French guns. Our artillery was carried into action by French horses. We flew French airplanes at the beginning. Belgian locomotives carried our materials. Italy furnished us men to work upon our lines of communication.

"All our allies from their depleted stocks helped us, with a generosity to express gratification for which I find no adequate terms. But there was one supply of two million splendid men who under Pershing marched and fought with your heroic troops in the final great and victorious struggle.

Calls Them Friends
"With these memories of old association it is surprising that I feel as if I had come among friends.
"Now let us consider for a moment the situation here, as it is confronted by two American business men who some three weeks ago were invited by the reparations commission to give detailed attention in connection with the proposed work which we start today.
"This is no time to mince words.

"Upon our report to the reparations commission of a plan for the realization of German currency and the balancing of the German budget it is for them, not us, to be concerned with the political effects. The more I have talked with those here who are nearest the situation the more I have realized the great wisdom the reparations commission has shown in defining the purposes of our convocation. "In order to consider, in accordance with the provisions of Article 234 of the treaty of Versailles, the resources and capacity of Germany.

To Stabilize Currency
"We are "intrusted with considering means of balancing the budget and measures to be taken to stabilize the currency." If without fear or favor we suggest a plan for the stabilization of the German currency and the balancing of the German budget which the reparations commission deems fit to ratify, we will at least have done this—we will have suggested that which has enabled the reparations commission to start Germany toward productivity, and to re-establishment of German productivity is the starting point of European prosperity.

"The first step which we should take, it seems to me, is to devise a system of stabilizing Germany's currency so we can get some water to run thru the budget mill. Let us build the mill after we find the stream to turn its wheels."

Arrangements fully completed for meeting of Royal Neighbor and Modern Woodman Lodges—State Deputies Coming.

Due to a misunderstanding the impression has gained ground that the joint installation of the officers of the Modern Woodman and Royal Neighbor camps tonight would be held in Woodmen hall. That is not correct. The installation is to be held in Odd Fellows Hall on West State street. Telephone Talk No. 2
What good telephone communication means to a nation is best illustrated by hundreds of historic events before the telephone existed. Here are a few:
On January 8, 1815, the battle of New Orleans was fought. The nation was at peace—the treaty had been signed two weeks before, but General Jackson did not get the word and there was heavy loss of life.
The historic address of Abraham Lincoln on March 4, 1861, was carried at record-breaking speed—7 days and 14 hours—by pony express from St. Joseph, Mo., to Sacramento, Cal., a distance of 1,400 miles. Today it could be "on the wire" in a few seconds.
June 19, 1812, President Madison issued a proclamation of war with England. The only means of communication with the country was by stage coach and post-rider, and it took several weeks to send the message from England to the South. With telephone communication there could have been unity of thought and action.

EVANGELIST SHOWS JUDAS AS MORAL MAN

Rev. Poole Gives New View of Betrayer — Meeting Last Night Well Attended.

"Judas, the greatest moral man who ever lived," was the rather surprising theme used last night by Rev. Everett Poole in his sermon at Northminster Presbyterian church. The attendance for a Monday night meeting was especially good. The speaker took up the thought of Judas as we usually see him, a traitor, a suicide, and a lost man. He was all of these things in the end, and yet he was evidently a man of high morality.

In the first place, Judas was a member and an officer in the first church. He was for three years the treasurer of that organization, chosen on account of his financial ability and with the idea that he would some day stand as the financial head of the kingdom which Christ was expected to establish at Jerusalem.

Judas was evidently a trusted citizen. He had for some time the confidence of the disciples, and it was not until later that his real moral character was discovered.

The guilt of Judas lay not in his responsibility for the death of Christ, but in his betrayal of the Master. Altho he had such high standing and had even sacrificed the position of wealth and influence which his ability in finances might have brought him in the world, and had given up these things for the sake of the cause of Christ, he fell. His heart was not a tool in the hands of destiny. He did not have to betray Christ. He stood on his own feet and made his own decisions. He was therefore responsible for his own fall.

The scripture lesson of the evening was read by Rev. J. P. Hastings of Stonington, who stopped in the city on his way to his home after holding an evangelistic meeting in the Brookhouse church at Mason City. He will leave this morning for Stonington.

"PRAYING COLONELS" WILL BE EMULATED

DANVILLE Ky., Jan. 14.—The spirit of prayer preceding important football games symbolic of Centre College gridiron contests is prevailing the minds of many of the staunch followers of the "Praying Colonels" in the matter of selection of a coach to schedule "Uncle Charlie" Moran. A meeting has been called for Tuesday night when a possible selection may be made. Just one name has been prominently mentioned for the position that of "Bo" McMillan, Legions of Centre College supporters are hoping McMillan will be called back to the school.

NOT BANKING ON NEHF

Despite his great work in the world series, Manager McGraw of the Giants says he doesn't expect much help from Artie Nehf the coming season. Nehf had trouble with his arm all last season and did his greatest work of the year in the series, only to have his arm fail him in the crisis.

Billy Evans SAYS

"Too many of the young pitchers are fussing with the knuckle ball," remarked the veteran catcher, Jack Ryan, last season coach of the Boston Red Sox. We were discussing the failure of several rookies of prominence to come through. "Eddie Rommel by the use of the knuckle ball became a star. Immediately all young pitchers started to develop a knucker," continued Ryan. "Every young pitcher in the American League has some freak delivery in his repertoire but it serves as nothing but a handicap since he can't get the ball over."

Always the possessor of uncanny control, Rommel was the ideal type pitcher to dabble with the possibilities of the knuckle ball. When in the hole he always seems to be able to get the next one over.

After the veteran Ryan had so expressed himself, I began paying more attention than ever to the way the various youngsters worked. I knew that too many of them were trying to develop the knuckle ball to increase their effectiveness, only to have it serve as a handicap. However, I had no real idea of how often the use of a delivery which the rookie was unable to properly control got him into trouble. I am positive that nothing has served to cut down the effectiveness of the rookie pitchers more than the experimenting with the knuckle ball.

Pitching, after all, is largely a matter of control. No matter how much stuff a pitcher may have, he is of no value unless he can get the ball over the plate. It is wasted effort.

It seems to be baseball tradition that southpaws as a rule are much wilder than right handers as they break into the major leagues. During my career as an American League umpire, covering a period of 18 years, I have worked back of many a wild and woolly recruit, but I seriously doubt if any of them had a thing on Southpaw Harper, who made his big league debut with Washington. Later he was with the New York Yankee and then Brooklyn in the National League. He recently passed out of the big show.

Harper had a world of stuff, but lacked control. The first time I saw him I felt he was a second Babe Waddell in the making. Inability to get the ball over caused him to remain an uncertainty throughout his entire big league career.

The peculiar thing about Harper was that every now and then he would turn in a perfectly pitched game, which of course would cause you to believe he had overcome his one great fault. Then he would immediately fall back into his old ways. After going along with Harper for some time, Washington decided to send him up to Minneapolis for further seasoning under the direction of Billy Sullivan, former White Sox catching star, who was backstopping for the Millers.

Players and fans in the American Association that year will probably never forget the pitching stunts that Harper pulled. It got to be saying that Harper either strikes 'em out or gives a base on balls.

In the first game he pitched in that league Harper struck out 16 and walked nine. His second appearance lasted only four innings, in which he walked 11 and fanned seven. These two exhibitions caused him to be much talked about. Then in his third time out he came through with one of the great games he flashed every now and then, shutting out St. Louis without a hit, striking out 12 and passing seven. A little later he gave 20 bases on balls and struck out seven against the same team. It will be a long another pitcher with as much stuff, yet who failed to shine.

WILL COACH AT YALE

Joe Wood and Clyde Engel, former American Leaguers, will do the baseball coaching at Yale this year, Wood being in charge and Engel his assistant.

WOULD PROVE BAD MOVE

Baseball men are inclined to believe that Clarke Griffith will make a mistake if he again gets into the active end of the game as manager of his Washington club.

VET CATCHERS TO COACH

The veteran catchers, Hank Gowdy and Edie Almsmith, will be used almost entirely by the Giants this year to develop the many young pitchers McGraw has under contract.

H. K. Dorr, manager of the J. C. Penny store in the city was detained from his duties yesterday by illness.

HOPPE TO DEFEND TITLE IN CHICAGO

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—Willie Hoppe will defend his title of world's champion 18.2 balkline billiard player against Jake Schaefer, the only man ever to wrest the crown from him in Chicago, January 21, 22 and 23, under the provisions of the annual championship tournament which provides that the player finishing second, third and fourth may challenge the winner.

Schaefer, who finished third in the tournament today telegraphed a challenge to Hoppe, announcing he had deposited a forfeit and the champion immediately accepted. The winner to their match of three blocks of 500 points each, will be challenged by Edouard Horemans, Belgian champion, who finished fourth in the tournament. That match probably will be played here in March.

Hoppe already has successfully defended his title against Walker Cochran who finished second.

FRISCH RANKS HIGH AMONG BEST PLAYERS IN MODERN BASEBALL

New York, Jan. 14. (A.P.)—Frank Frisch, brilliant second baseman of the New York Giants, has taken rank as one of the outstanding performers of present-day baseball in all around play. Though some students may not rate the "Fordham Flash" as quite the equal of Babe Ruth or Rogers Hornsby, there is little doubt that these three top the modern list, replacing the old triumvirate of Eddie Collins, Tris Speaker and Ty Cobb.

John McGraw, manager of the Giants, rates Frisch the greatest player of the day. He asserted he would not exchange his infield star for Hornsby "even up."

A comparison of the rivals for all around honors show that Hornsby is a better hitter than Frisch, but cannot equal him in second base play, or in speed and cunning on the paths. Frisch, too, is just as good at third as he is at the keystone bag. Ruth is more formidable on offense than either of the two National Leaguers but is not as valuable as either in defense. He does not compare with Frisch as a base-runner, although he is better on the paths than Hornsby.

Frisch's temperament, keen intelligence, and the fact that he always takes good care of himself are important factors in his favor. His 1923 world's series play was the most spectacular individual work of that colorful event.

Close inspection of Frisch's record last season strengthens his claims to greatness. He made more base hits than any other man in his league, and only his team-mate, Young, led him in runs scored. He made 32 triples, ten doubles and twelve home runs. He is a consistent batter and an uncanny bunter.

Frisch, on his record so far, has demonstrated his right to make a quartet of that famous trio of second sackers—Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie and Johnny Evers.

Frisch counts Ruether and Vance, Brooklyn flingers, as the deadliest pitchers he has faced.

"Frank will be a rich man some day," said McGraw, "for he invests his money well and has good business sense."

SHOCKER VERSUS DETROIT

Things can be expected to happen when Pitcher Urban Shocker faces the Tigers again this summer. Last season the star pitcher and Manager Cobb of Detroit came to blows. When Shocker announced he was through with St. Louis, every other American League team, except Detroit put in a bid for him. Cobb is reported as having said he didn't want such a pitcher on his ball club. Shocker's greatest delight this summer, next to beating New York—the team that traded him to St. Louis—will be trimming the Tigers.

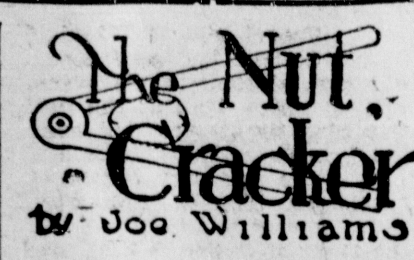

Fred Craven represented Pisgah neighborhood on the square Monday.

We suppose its perfectly proper to refer to bathing girls in the films as comic strip artists.

They're going to let Harry Thaw out again and then maybe the scarcity of good left handers won't be so noticeable.

After all the trouble they've gone to it would be rather disconcerting if the explorers found a note on King Tut's tomb reading: "Out to lunch. Back at 2 p. m."

There is some consolation in the knowledge that when the boys finally do get to King Tut he may not be in a mood to dislike the stymie controversy.

Despite the fact that Tilden has led the tennis players for four straight years, his friends insist he has a very bright future.

McGraw bought a minor league phenom the other day and paid only $50,000 for him. The phenom should demand an apology.

These amateur athletes would probably get along a whole lot better if they'd join the American Federation of Labor.

Among those who think Charley Paddock should be barred from the mugs he'll have to face him in the 100-yard dash.

The erudite Mr. Benny Leonard writes that the wickedness of stage life is grossly exaggerated. Oh well, we all have our little disappointments.

So far as most of the wrestlers who come from that country are concerned, the Turkish bath is purely an American institution.

It appears that Tex Rickard instead of sugaring the New York politicians simply told them to lump it.

Mr. Rickard is said to be an honest guy and if this is so of course he has no business in the prize fight racket.

LOCAL HOOPSTERS TO MEET DIVERNON

Divernon Knights of Pythias basketball team will travel to this city Friday night where they will meet the fast stepping Dokays of this city. This team was known last year as the Busy Bees and trimmed about everything that came their way. They have been equally as successful this season and naturally are not traveling the long distance from Divernon in the cold for nothing. The Dokays have been wishing for a strong team of hoopsters to play against and the chances are that their wishes will be gratified when Divernon arrives.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 15c and 30c.

It is necessary an out-of-doors girl. Just a girl with ever increasing blood cells. Just a girl filled with the vim and vigor of youth.

S. S. S. since 1826, has stood for increased blood cells. S. S. S. means restored strength—rekindled vitality—added energy. Take S. S. S. and watch the bloom of youth return to your cheeks. PLAN WIDE BUSINESS ORGANIZATION HERE

Committee of "25" Approves Plans to Form Mercantile Groups—To Promote Grocers' Association.

A scheme of extensive business organization within the Chamber of Commerce, a plan that will eventually form the individuals in each mercantile line into a compact co-operating groups, was outlined last night by Chairman Thomas Coyle of the Committee of "25" at a meeting of that body. The meeting was held at 6 o'clock at the Peacock Inn, and a majority of the members of the committee were present. Chairman Coyle presented to the committee plans that, if carried to completion, will mean group organization of every business interest in the city and extend even into the surrounding country communities.

Through the efforts of the committee, the bakers of the city have already been organized for mutual interest, protection and progress of the business in this city. The next move will be to organize the grocers of the city who are members of the Chamber of Commerce, forty-two in all, so that they may act together in matters of mutual concern.

A meeting of the grocers is being called for Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce. Five teams have been appointed from the membership of the committee of "25" to interview each grocer individually and sell him the idea of the organization. In fact the committee is designed to be a high power sales force of the Chamber of Commerce. It is to be used to talk thru and put over the projects of the entire city, and is at the command of the mayor, the Chamber of Commerce, or any other civic and business organization.

At each meeting of the committee, instruction is given in salesmanship. The organization of the grocers is only one of the steps in the plan to form the entire mercantile business of the city into its respective groups. The business sections of the Commercial Division, and will function as sub organizations of this main body of merchants.

He was unconscious for a short time after the fall but regained consciousness before the ambulance arrived to convey him to the hospital.

An Altos paper in a story of the accident said:

"At St. Joseph hospital it was said this afternoon that Lucas was sleeping and that the surgical examination had developed that he had no injuries at all, save a slight abrasion of the skin on one leg, such as he might have suffered by falling against an object and skinning his leg."
